

RIDGEFIELD PARK PARK.

SIGNANT JUNKY CITIZENS WANT TO KNOW WHY.

As Fall Town Meets' Junkman Wilcher and Stockholder Shields Jump on the Village Board with their Complaints...

It has already been in Ridgefield Park's Board of Trustees. These trustees don't see any financial remuneration for their services...

The meeting opened with the Rev. Mr. Philipp in the chair. Mr. Philip's remarks were in the main all of his own...

"What do we want with resolutions? Why don't we have a resolution on the subject of Mr. Wilcher's salary..."

"I don't think it is in our character," said Mr. Wilcher. "I don't think it is in our character..."

"I don't think it is in our character," said Mr. Wilcher. "I don't think it is in our character..."

"I don't think it is in our character," said Mr. Wilcher. "I don't think it is in our character..."

"I don't think it is in our character," said Mr. Wilcher. "I don't think it is in our character..."

"I don't think it is in our character," said Mr. Wilcher. "I don't think it is in our character..."

"I don't think it is in our character," said Mr. Wilcher. "I don't think it is in our character..."

ASKS $100,000 FROM ADAMS.

MYRTLE THURLLOW WAYS SHE HAS ALREADY HONOUR SUIT.

She Charges the Millionaire Cheating Gum Masses and Her Own Promise of Marriage—He Used to Sell Gum, but is Now a Bankrupt Chewing Gum Artist.

Myrtle Thurlow, a lightning change artist and variety performer, known on the stage as "Lucky Thurlow," claims $100,000 damages from Thomas Adams, Jr., one of the manufacturers of the Adams Tutti Frutti chewing gum and Treasurer of the Berghen Beach Improvement Company...

After all the things in all the shadow of a dream, as far as any legal status goes. There is no board of directors, no officers, no stockholders...

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

Whether the men hired by the Adams Express Company to replace the strikers are competent or not, there was little doubt yesterday of the ability of the company to secure all the men they want.

WOOPED IT UP FOR BRYAN.

TANNARY MEN SHOUT ABOUT THEIR CERTAIN VICTORY.

Gen. Fore of Glen Falls Swears by the Eternal that Bryan Shall Be Elected—Swears that Bryan's Victory is Certain.

A large mass meeting, attended by a thousand or more men, was held at Brommer's Union Park, Southern Boulevard and 132d street, last night, to rally the nomination of Bryan and Sewall, Henry A. Gumbel acted as Chairman and George W. Thompson, Joseph Walsh, and Patrick Strauss as speakers.

"The issue is now clearly drawn between Democracy and Monocracy, between the rights of the people and the wrongs of monopoly; between the candidate of the toilers and producers and the candidate of the mortgagee and the landlord."

"Notwithstanding the discourtesy of some privileged guests at the Madison Square Garden meeting in departing in a noisy and boisterous manner early in the proceedings which more than 30,000 sincere Democrats were vainly endeavoring to advise to the contrary, and notwithstanding also the misrepresentation of hostile newspapers the Bryan notification meeting was a thorough success in demonstrating the lofty and inspiring character of the Democratic nominee for the Presidency."

"The battle is now on; and it is fitting that the Thirty-fourth Assembly district should be the first to give its support to the great Democratic mass meeting, with no reserved seats, no favored guests, no police interference, where all the citizens of New York will have an opportunity of meeting William J. Bryan face to face and hand to hand."

"Senator Twenty-first District, New York," Mr. James Seabold offered the following resolution: "Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

"Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

"Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

"Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

"Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

"Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

"Resolved, That the committee and the members of the Thirty-fourth Assembly district of the City of New York, in mass meeting assembled, at Brommer's Union Park, on the 17th day of August, 1896, do hereby ratify, endorse and support the nomination of William J. Bryan for President and Vice-President of the United States and the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Governor of the State of New York."

KEY WEST CITIZENS AROUSED.

Despatch Sent to Mr. Olney Concerning Govin's Death in Cuba.

Key West, Fla., Aug. 17.—Several hundred citizens of this city gathered in front of the City Hall to-night in response to a call published in the Standard.

What was supposed to be a general strike of the organization known as the New York Painters went into effect yesterday for the first time since the strike of the painters in New York City.

The German Painters Call It a "Bastard" Strike. The German Painters Union in New York City has issued a statement regarding the strike of the painters in New York City.

Three Men Killed and Several Injured in a Hotel Yard. Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 17.—A party of men in the employ of the Pennsylvania Telephone Company were starting out to work in New Holland this morning and had placed 100 pounds of dynamite in a wagon which was standing in the yard of A. G. Miller's Hotel.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE BOERS DENY IT. They Say They Will Stand by the Anglo-French Boer Convention. PRETORIA, Aug. 17.—The Government has issued a denial of the report published in the London Standard yesterday to the effect that the Transvaal, in contravention of the Anglo-Boer Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE ARABIAN OUTRAGES. They Are Said to Have Been Authorized by the Sultan himself. LONDON, Aug. 17.—In its issue to-morrow the Daily News will say it is announced that further diplomatic correspondence will be issued in London in connection with the Arabian Convention of 1884, had entered into a treaty with a foreign power without the consent of Great Britain.

THE SAVINGS BANK VOTE.

1,735,382 DEPOSITORS IN THIS STATE, SAYS SUPR. KILBURN.

The H-est Dollars Which They Have Picked in the Banks and Hop to Get Back Number 713,028. The Savings Bank of New York, Albany, Aug. 17.—Superintendent Frederick D. Kilburn of the State Banking Department has tabulated the reports of the 127 savings banks in the State, showing their financial operations for the year ended in June 30, 1896.

This tabulation shows that, compared with the year ended in June 30, 1895, the total resources of the savings banks of the State increased $44,240,191; the amount due depositors increased $45,760,881; the surplus decreased $1,435,352; the number of depositors increased 77,655; the amount of deposits made during the year increased $1,880,860; the amount of deposits withdrawn during the year increased $1,035,544; the amount of interest credited depositors during the year increased $1,864,458, and the current expenses for the banks increased by $54,093.

The following figures are taken from the statistics tabulated by Superintendent Kilburn: Total resources, $806,751,431; due depositors on July 1, 1896, $713,028,804; total deposits, $4,938,727; current expenses of the banks, $2,307,958; amount of deposits received, $1,880,860; amount of deposits withdrawn, $1,035,544; interest credited depositors, $1,864,458; current expenses, $54,093.

In speaking of the operations of the savings banks of the State, Superintendent Kilburn said: "Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

THE SAVINGS BANK VOTE.

1,735,382 DEPOSITORS IN THIS STATE, SAYS SUPR. KILBURN.

The H-est Dollars Which They Have Picked in the Banks and Hop to Get Back Number 713,028. The Savings Bank of New York, Albany, Aug. 17.—Superintendent Frederick D. Kilburn of the State Banking Department has tabulated the reports of the 127 savings banks in the State, showing their financial operations for the year ended in June 30, 1896.

This tabulation shows that, compared with the year ended in June 30, 1895, the total resources of the savings banks of the State increased $44,240,191; the amount due depositors increased $45,760,881; the surplus decreased $1,435,352; the number of depositors increased 77,655; the amount of deposits made during the year increased $1,880,860; the amount of deposits withdrawn during the year increased $1,035,544; the amount of interest credited depositors during the year increased $1,864,458, and the current expenses for the banks increased by $54,093.

The following figures are taken from the statistics tabulated by Superintendent Kilburn: Total resources, $806,751,431; due depositors on July 1, 1896, $713,028,804; total deposits, $4,938,727; current expenses of the banks, $2,307,958; amount of deposits received, $1,880,860; amount of deposits withdrawn, $1,035,544; interest credited depositors, $1,864,458; current expenses, $54,093.

In speaking of the operations of the savings banks of the State, Superintendent Kilburn said: "Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

THE SAVINGS BANK VOTE.

1,735,382 DEPOSITORS IN THIS STATE, SAYS SUPR. KILBURN.

The H-est Dollars Which They Have Picked in the Banks and Hop to Get Back Number 713,028. The Savings Bank of New York, Albany, Aug. 17.—Superintendent Frederick D. Kilburn of the State Banking Department has tabulated the reports of the 127 savings banks in the State, showing their financial operations for the year ended in June 30, 1896.

This tabulation shows that, compared with the year ended in June 30, 1895, the total resources of the savings banks of the State increased $44,240,191; the amount due depositors increased $45,760,881; the surplus decreased $1,435,352; the number of depositors increased 77,655; the amount of deposits made during the year increased $1,880,860; the amount of deposits withdrawn during the year increased $1,035,544; the amount of interest credited depositors during the year increased $1,864,458, and the current expenses for the banks increased by $54,093.

The following figures are taken from the statistics tabulated by Superintendent Kilburn: Total resources, $806,751,431; due depositors on July 1, 1896, $713,028,804; total deposits, $4,938,727; current expenses of the banks, $2,307,958; amount of deposits received, $1,880,860; amount of deposits withdrawn, $1,035,544; interest credited depositors, $1,864,458; current expenses, $54,093.

In speaking of the operations of the savings banks of the State, Superintendent Kilburn said: "Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.

This publication makes it opportune especially in this connection to attract attention to the fact that the banks system, to state facts which cannot be too strongly emphasized. Our savings banks are distinctly benevolent institutions, organized and supervised merely from philanthropic motives, with the aim of stimulating frugality and thrift on the part of the poor people. The whole system is based on the principle of the permanent of Banks satisfy himself that a proposed bank would be a public benefit before it can be authorized, and also to ascertain that its proposed trustees are men of responsibility, character, and general fitness for the discharge of their duties.

"Next to the tremendous resources which these reports represent, the most striking feature is the increase of those who have had more than the five-fourths of the population of the State, or to be more exact, 204 per cent., are depositors in the savings banks, and that their money is received, invested, and cared for at the low cost of 3 1/2 mills per dollar per year.